

CALVARY LOST OUT ON ITS LAST CHANCE

Defeat by Fourth Makes Pennant Impossible.

MANY BRILLIANT PLAYS

Splendid Struggle Which Kept Crowd
on Tiptoes All the Time—Belaski and McKenny Batters.

Calvary Methodist Episcopal and Fourth, of the Church League, met yesterday in one of the best games of the season before the largest crowd that has ever filled the Mt. Pleasant grounds. Fourth won by 7 to 6. This defeat takes away all of Calvary's chances for the championship.

Clean, fast ball, interspersed with many brilliant plays, kept the crowd on tiptoe the whole nine innings. Belaski and McKenny carried off the batting honors for Fourth.

Neal McKenny's catch of McCauley's long fly in the eighth, with two men racing home, was the fielding feature of the "fray."

CARROLL WAS EASY FOR COLUMBIA CLUB

The patched-up Carroll Institute team was easy for the Columbia Athletic Club at the Coliseum yesterday.

Score, 9 to 2. Several of the Institute players were missing when noses were counted, and it was necessary to shift the whole outfit around, and the new combination would not work. Score:

WRIGHT TELLS HOW THEY LOST TROPHY

Ward Made Hard Smash, His Racquet Touched Net and Englishman Won.

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—With ten cups earned in matches, W. A. Larned, S. C. Wright, Holcombe Ward, and W. C. Clothier, comprising the American tennis team, which has been competing abroad in the international matches, are home again.

Although disappointed in not winning the Davis Challenge Cup, the players were well pleased with their success abroad.

"We have no excuse to make," said Wright, "but we had pretty hard luck in the doubles. The score stood two sets all, five all, and thirty all, and we thought we had them. Ward made a hard smash, and his racquet just touched the net. That practically lost us the match."

SPORTING COMMENT.

BASEBALL.

Sam Edmonston, the former Georgetown athlete, is pitching for the Catonsville Country Club, of Baltimore.

Dick Woodward, the Central High School catcher, is doing the backstop work for the Winchester, Va., team.

Fred Tenny, the Boston National manager, says there will be nothing to it but the Giants in the pennant fight in the National League.

Germany Schaefer, the Detroit second baseman, who was killed by the bleachers while the Tigers were here, lost a $300 diamond while on his way here.

The New York Americans have grabbed up Goode, a Johnstown, Pa., pitcher.

Billy Keane's three-bagger at Richmond on Tuesday won the game from the Brownies. Keane was playing center and Jack Leonard was pitching for the Norfolk Collegians. Both are well known Washington players.

Hugains is said to be playing sensational ball for Cincinnati. Sensational ball for Cincinnati—New York Globe.

Berry, the pitcher whom the Boston Americans bought from Decatur, stands six feet two inches.

Jack Slattery, whom Clarke Griffith tried to land for the New York Americans, is playing fine ball for Coatesville, Tri-State League.

If the present yellow fever continues about New Orleans it is likely that the Cotton States League will close up shop.

John Luttich, the Sporting News correspondent in Washington, is already making preparations for and on the basis of his book on amateur baseball in this city. He intends to publish the picture of every ununiformed team in the city if possible.

Stock-taking Discoveries

The powerful searchlight in business is inventory. Nothing can hide from or evade its mighty glare. It brings to the fore many broken lines of merchandise. It's our custom right after stock-taking to peremptorily clean up all these merchandise laggards. We've an unusually big lot of remnants on hand right now, due, of course, to the unusually large volume of business that centered here during the past six months; every effect has a cause.

These little lots must be cleaned out quickly, and so irrespective of cost or even loss we mark them at reckless reductions. The selling will start in bright and early tomorrow morning, and will continue at a lively rate until all the laggards are disposed of.

As the lots in most every instance are limited, we cannot promise how long they will last, so your earliest consideration relative to these unusual values will be the more to your advantage.

A Great Clothing Chance for All Men

And now for the biggest clothing-buying opportunity of the season. No time in the entire year is more propitious for the buying of clothing than the days following the inventory of the Saks stocks. Men by the thousands know this from experience. At this time we forget everything but clearance—that's the one thought, pure and simple—that's the goal irrespective of cost and loss. On this occasion men can buy Saks clothing for a mere song, so to speak. Because we can't and won't go against our fixed policy of carrying no garments over to another season.

Remember this sale affects our entire stock of Two and Three-garment Suits of Fancy Worsteds, Cassimeres, Cheviots, Flannels, and White Serges—Men's and Young Men's—nothing reserved—the most aristocratic apparel that can be produced—Saks clothing, made right in the Saks workshops—therefore the very best—clothing that's unequivocally guaranteed to be the best in style, workmanship, fit, and service. ALL THE SUITS INVOLVED IN THIS GIGANTIC SEMI-ANNUAL CLEARANCE MOVEMENT HAVE BEEN DIVIDED INTO FOUR PRICE-GROUPS, AS FOLLOWS:

Suits that were priced $10.00 and $12.50 go now for	Suits that were priced $15.00 and $18.00 go now for	Suits that were priced $20.00, $22.50, and $25.00, go now for	Suits that were priced $27.50, $30.00, and $32.50 go now for
-------------------------------------------------------------	-------------------------------------------------------------	------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----------------------------------------------------------------------

$8.25 $11.25 $16.25 $22.25

We desire to emphasize the fact that all men can be fitted; the tall, the lean, the short, the stout, the abnormally large or the man of regular proportions—also the young men from 14 to 20 years of age—thus no man or youth need go away dissatisfied. This sale gives new dignity and prestige to the word bargain, for when Saks-values are sacrificed the application of that much-abused word becomes necessary—because in this realm it is a legitimate, meaningful word, intelligently, legitimately, and meaningfully applied.
